

Salida enjoys music

Reilly Make Some Noise performs "Africa" by Toto during SunFest Friday at the Salida Rotary Amphitheater in Riverside Park. The entire Rok Skool performed "School's Out" for the final song of the youth music festival sponsored by Articipate.

BAM performs "Blame It on Me" by George Ezra Saturday during the Bluegrass on the Arkansas festival. The name BAM comes from the first initial of each group member's name: Brooke Beasley, Alan Mueller and Mitchell Tanner.

Gloria Post, 1, Salida, reaches out as Melissa Lang, 9, Swissvale, holds her Friday during Articipate's SunFest youth music festival. Melissa said she wanted to listen to Rok Skool's performances because she's in Articipate.

Did you know that a majority of colleges in Colorado require a Meningococcal vaccine to live in student housing?
